

Officiant Phil Gallagher

My philosophy is that every ceremony should reflect the story, heart and personality of the couple. So it can be as spiritual or secular as you are... as formal or laid back as you are... or as traditional or contemporary as you are.

It all begins with a free introductory meeting to let you determine if I'm what you're looking for. Honestly, this meeting is best in person, but if you're planning your wedding from out of town – no worries. We can chat over the phone or via Skype/FaceTime.

After our initial introduction, I'll offer some sample ceremonies along with a wide variety of wordings for the Ceremony Core Components (listed below). Then we'll work one-on-two, to co-create a ceremony that is beautifully written and thoughtfully arranged with a warm and personalized feel, incorporating every special tradition or element you request.

My services include, but are not limited to:

- 2 in-person meetings (initial "get-to-know-you" & one more)
- Telephone and email consultations
- Tailored wedding script
- Rehearsal attendance
- Rehearsal facilitation
- Arrival 30 min. prior to ceremony for pre-ceremony coordination
- Performing of ceremony
- Filing of marriage license

Ceremony Core Components:

- Procession
- Approval Blessing
- Welcome
- Address
- Declaration of Intent
- Vows
- Exchange of Rings
- Pronouncement & Kiss
- Presentation
- Recession

I very much enjoy the creative process and look forward to learning your particular style and needs and how best to meet them through a unique, custom-designed wedding ceremony. My base price begins at $700 for traditional weddings and $450 for elopement-style weddings. Elopement-style weddings do not require a rehearsal and are private ceremonies that typically have a minimal guest list. Travel fees may also apply for your desired location.
